AFTER A DISTRESSING EXPERIENCE

Children react too

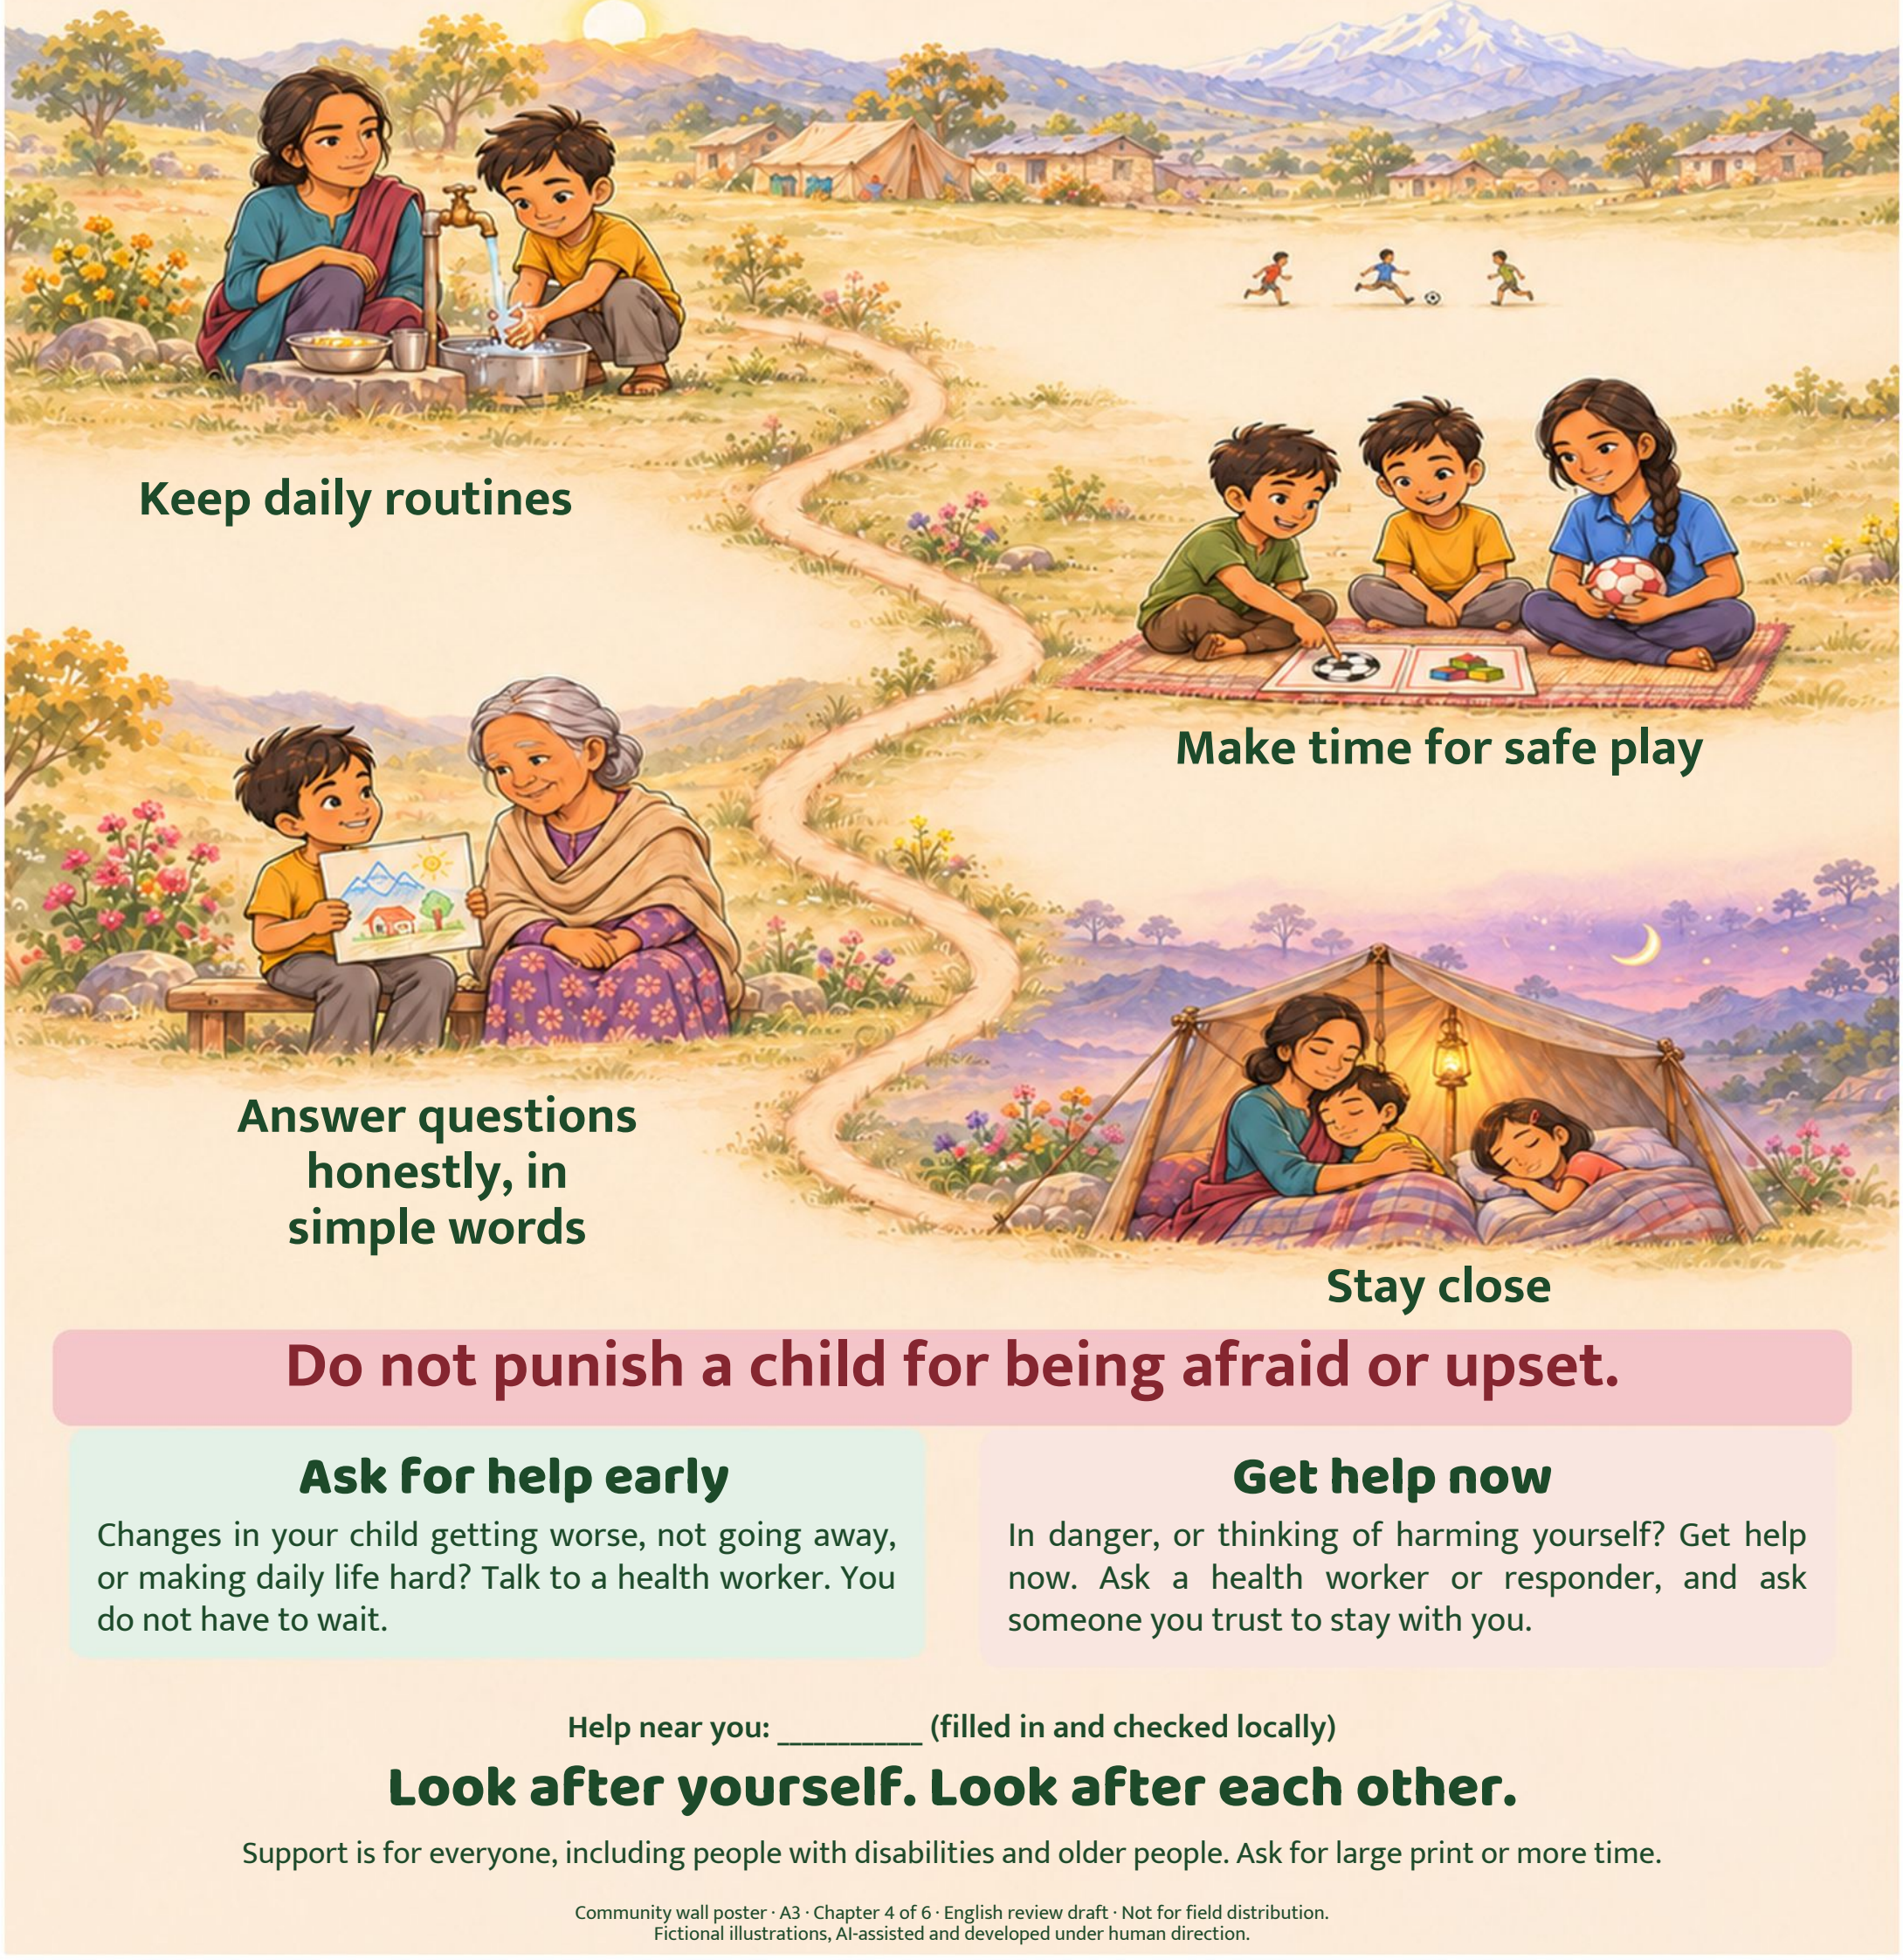

and families can help them feel safe

Changes in children are common after a distressing experience.

Children may...

Cling to you · Sleep badly · Cry or get angry more · Become very quiet

What helps

Keep daily routines

Make time for safe play

Answer questions honestly, in simple words

Stay close

Do not punish a child for being afraid or upset.

Ask for help early

Changes in your child getting worse, not going away, or making daily life hard? Talk to a health worker. You do not have to wait.

Get help now

In danger, or thinking of harming yourself? Get help now. Ask a health worker or responder, and ask someone you trust to stay with you.

Help near you: _____ (filled in and checked locally)

Look after yourself. Look after each other.

Support is for everyone, including people with disabilities and older people. Ask for large print or more time.
