WHEN SOMEONE WE LOVE HAS DIED OR IS MISSING

There is no right way to grieve

Grief is a normal response to loss.

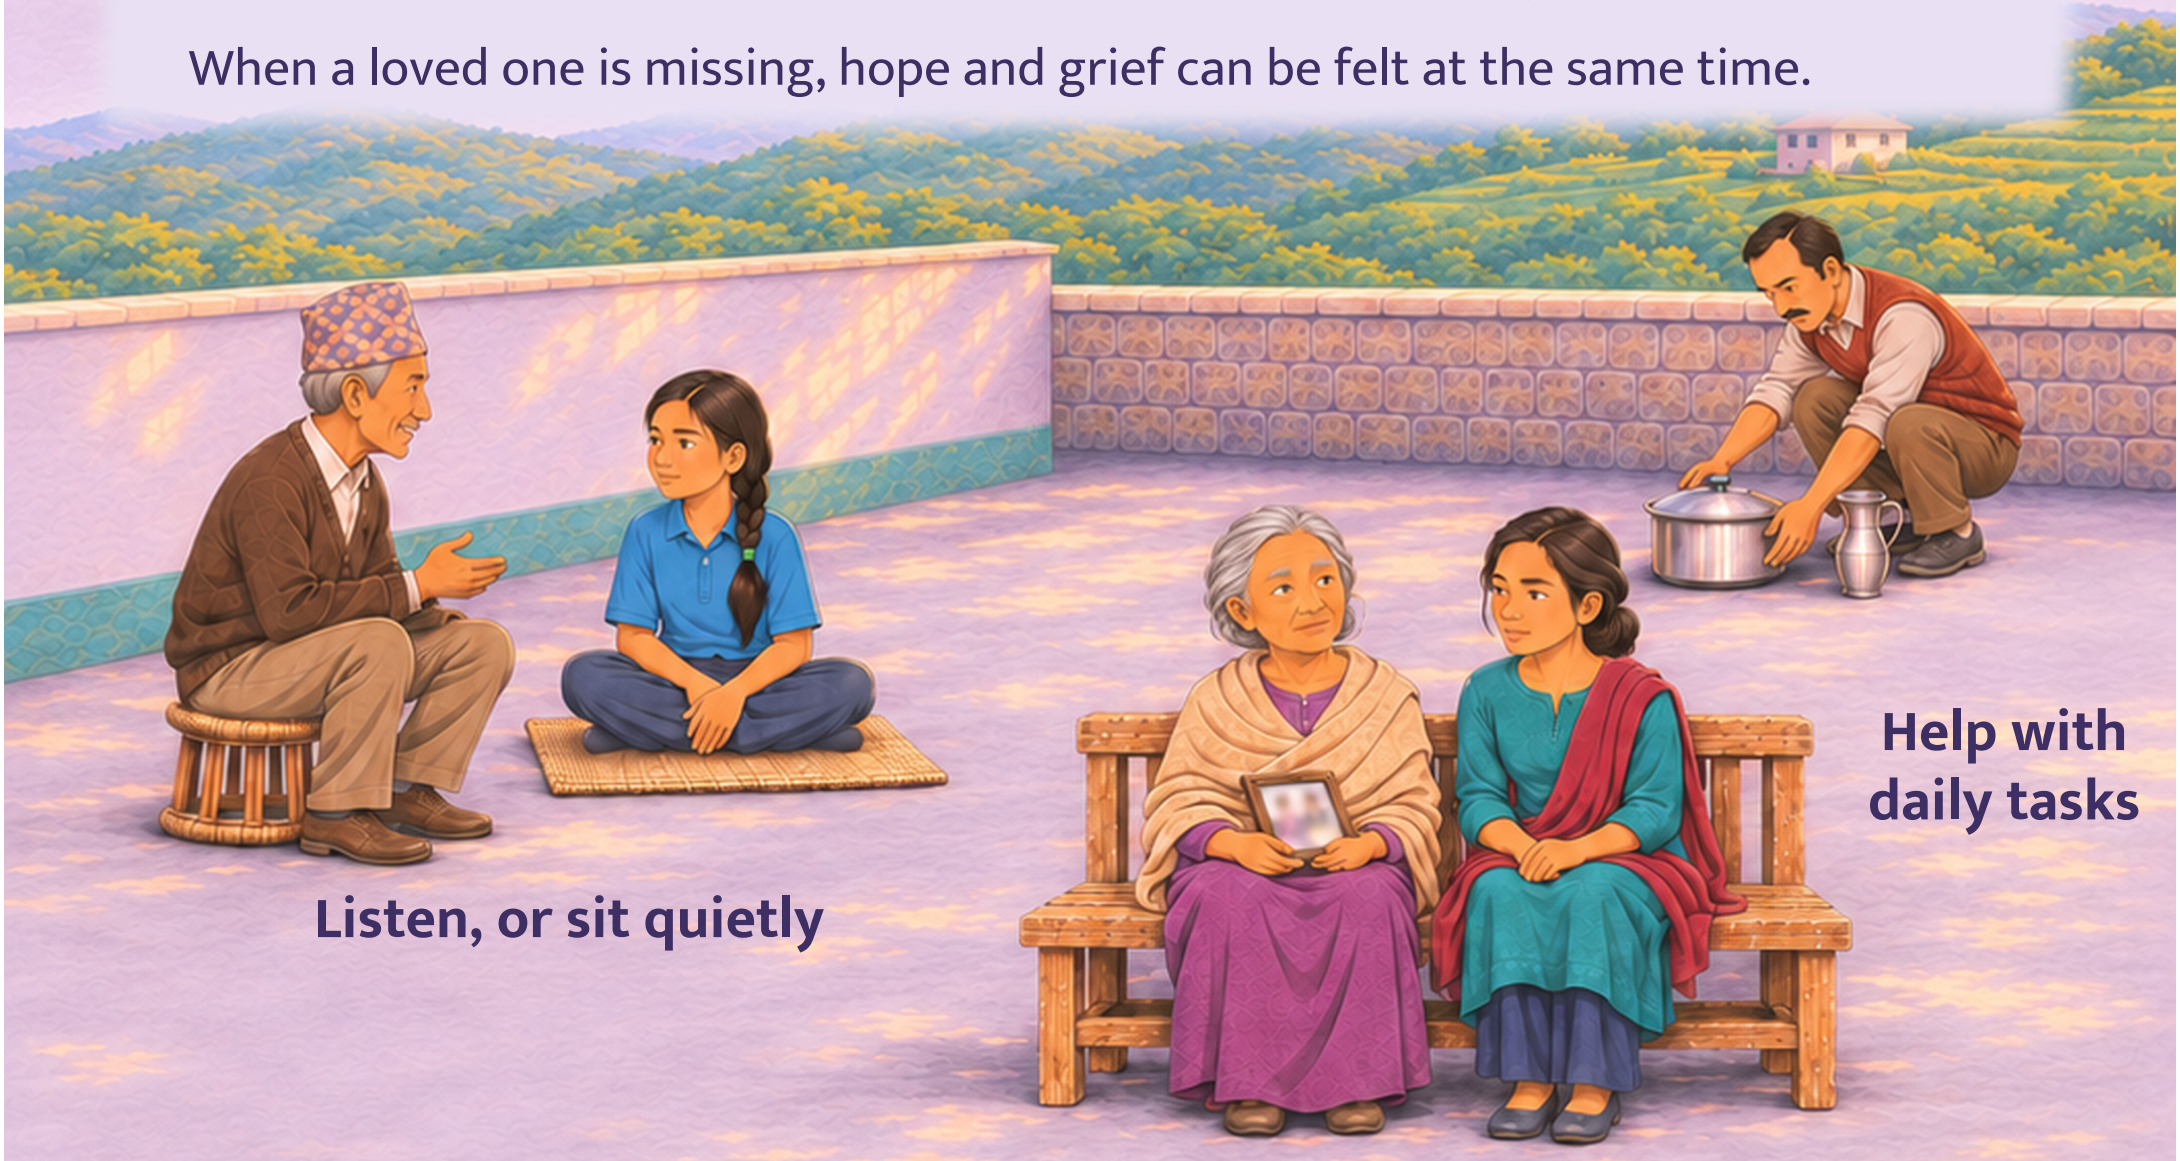

Grief can look like...

Crying · Missing them · Feeling empty ·
Feeling angry · Not sleeping

How to help someone who is grieving

Let them grieve in their own way

When a loved one is missing, hope and grief can be felt at the same time.

Listen, or sit quietly

Help with daily tasks

Stay close

Ask for help early

Grief has no fixed end date. If you want support, or grief is making daily life hard, talk to a health worker. You do not have to wait.

Get help now

In danger, or thinking of harming yourself? Get help now. Ask a health worker or responder, and ask someone you trust to stay with you.

Help near you: _____ (filled in and checked locally)

Look after yourself. Look after each other.

Support is for everyone, including people with disabilities and older people. Ask for large print, sign language or more time.
